Services

The Swan Hill District Health' Women's Clinic was established in 1996. Our mission is to provide holistic health care throughout a woman's entire life cycle.

The Women's Clinic offers a comprehensive women's health service in a sensitive, confidential and welcoming environment.

Qualified sexual and reproductive health nurses facilitate the Clinic. The nurses are highly skilled and have a strong understanding of sexual health issues and are aware of the variety of concerns that can affect our sexual health and wellbeing.

This service is complimentary to the care provided by your GP, and the Clinic can refer you to our Sexual & Reproductive Health Nurse Practitioner as required.

We welcome all women and people with a cervix.

Free interpreter services are available.
